

Order of Service

A Word from the Holst family:

We are thankful to our heavenly Father who “works all things according to the counsel of his will” for ordering all things well. The last year has been a challenging year for our family with great joys and some deep sadness. It is our desire that this day we remember God’s goodness to us as Matthew is ordained to the gospel ministry and installed as the Pastor of Geneva Orthodox Presbyterian Church. We have found a home in Geneva OPC. We could not have been more welcomed and encouraged since our arrival. We give a special thank you to all our brethren at Geneva OPC who have made our move here so much easier than it could have been. Throughout, God has been merciful. We also thank those who have put so much work into the events of today. We wish to thank our parents and families for their support, love and Christian upbringing of us, but especially their care and understanding in the last year. We want to thank all of you for attending today – we are delighted that you could fellowship with us and celebrate God’s goodness and work in our lives. Finally, if you are able, please never cease to pray for us as a family and for the Geneva OPC family. Remember us before the Lord as often as he lays us upon your hearts. Once again, thank you for your support and fellowship today.

In Christ,

Matthew, Stacy and Garin
